A decision of the international jury on a declaration of interest

Source: Protest Committee

Venue: Imperia

Published: 2025-03-13 09:16

Notice:

The International Jury has considered the declaration of potential interest by race official Gianluca Fantini, appointed as a member of the race committee.

The declaration:

"This is to display a potential COI in case of sailors and/or their coach from the my same club , Tognazzi Marine Village , eventually attending this event .

I do also clarify that I do not have any specific role at the above mentioned club.

Regards

Gianluca Fantini"

The following decision by the international jury is taken in application of World Sailing Regulation 34.4 and following the Conflict Of Interest Guidelines by World Sailing.

FACTS

1. The only relationship that the race official has with competitors is being members of the same club.
2. Any Italian Race Official, in order to maintain his/her status, has to be member of the MNA (Federazione Italiana Vela) through an affiliated club..
3. The race official has no role and never had any role of any nature at the club since he became a race officer, including any coaching or rule advising role for teams or for any of the individual coach or competitors.

CONCLUSIONS AND DECISION

Based on appendix A (part 1 and 2) of the guidelines to determine the nature of the conflict, and considering the factors in appendix B to to determine the level of Conflict of Interest, the decision of the International Jury is that the interest declared by race official Gianluca Fantini is to be assigned to category 1: "No conflict"

Therefore, race official Gianluca Fantini can officiate the event with no restrictions.
