Notice:

Since a week tomorrow will be Labour Day, tomorrow will be the last fun race of the season. I hope to see boats, crew, and mentors out for a great evening. The pre-race meeting will be at 1800 as usual.

Our stalwarts on the committee boat are not available tomorrow so I am looking for two volunteers to handle signals, timing, recording, etc. No experience necessary since we will only have one start and a pretty laid-back fleet. The Sarah Ashbridge is doing her engine break-in which may be completed in time for tomorrow's crew to be on board for the Sarah's first race of the season! if not we can have fun zipping around on the Jack Cameron and learning to use the Anchor Yanker. If you are interested please email me at dave.steenbergen@rogers.com
