Description

Me and my skipper were sailing on starboard to the starting line, we saw the boat GER 57579 coming on port I yelled multiple times starboard and watch out in a volume they could completely hear. They did not react or move so we tried to avoid by doing a quick tack so my skipper just tacked before letting me know causing us to capsize and the boat GER 57579 completely hitting us a leaving us with a crack in the bow of the boat on the port side. Sadly we noticed the damage while loading and strapping the boats after the races as the damage was under the rail of the bow.
