Question for Officials

Date: 2025-05-17

---

Question No: 02

Question For: Race Committee

Question:

Regarding the potential sail areas - why are you sending the Optimists to the furthest possible location away from the launch point? Seems odd to send the least sufficient and slowest boats out there.

Answer:

The sailing location is chosen on the judgement of the Race Committee (Race Officer) of where the best conditions for racing will be. The Race Officer is the person who decides on the location, and will make time allowances if the race area is further away from the launch points.
